Sacha Stone <https://sachastone.com/>

Robert Steele <https://robertdavidsteele.com>

Robert David Steele: Sean Stone, you are a gifted narrator who did “Thousand Pieces”, which I was very privileged to be a part of. And you have recently spoken with both Juan O Savin and Patrick Byrne, two of the most significant figures trying to save the Trump presidency from having an election stolen. Could you please just open with your perspective of how you see things?

Sean Stone: Sure, I can first do a little bit of my interpretation based on my conversations with them. You mentioned Patrick Byrne – he’s got a new prolonged article/book called “Deep Capture” that he’s releasing, I’m sure, on his Telegram and other platforms. “Deep Capture” is his experience with trying to brief President Trump on the election fraud. He thinks that basically that Trump had, as he said, a three foot putt that he could have made, instead he made it into the sand trap disaster with his legal process. He wasn’t talking about Sydney Powell and Mike Flynn, who he thinks were the most competent people surrounding him, but there were others that were giving him bad advice. So that’s Patrick’s perspective.

Then you get Juan O Savin’s perspective which is always, as you know Robert, he’s always been saying April 1st, don’t count out and don’t discount Trump before April 1st, or in, let’s say March 5th, in that region because that was the traditional constitutional day to swear in the president before the shift after FDR.

So Juan didn’t give me too much in terms of what’s happening, he talks around a lot of things obviously and gives people the long-term perspective on this, to say, ‘Look, relax, this is a long-term game. This is an international Global battle playing out.’

So towards that end, I’ll give you my perspective, which we talked to Sacha, Simon at the inauguration, and you were there too Robert, right? We talked a little bit about our perspective on the inauguration itself and a lot of us felt that there was something off about the inauguration, that it felt very staged. Charlie here can talk about how he’s seen the video that was released at the inauguration before and it was pre-taped which certainly would make sense, the White House video certainly pre-taped on a stage.

So what is really happening to my gut. You're seeing the military in the background controlling the Biden presidency allowing - This is my trust - You have to allow the New World Order to play all its cards. This is what Juan O Savin said as well, let it play all its cards. Let the people see it for themselves. Let the people experience the pain, you know, this is very important for people that don't understand conspiracies the way that you and I and others that study this or lived it, have been conspirators, understand that the world is conspiratorial. These people that walk around with their masks and just obey the orders, they don't want to believe that there's a New World Order agenda that is trying to destroy United States of America and some of them don't even know what that means, unfortunately. They've been mis-educated for so long as to what the Constitutional Republic of the United States means.

But for those of us that remember that there is a constitution that is a basis for our nation and that have loyalty and patriotism to that, we are being activated. Our spirit is being ignited by this New World Order takeover. We are feeling so squelched as a people, as a country, so disregarded with our liberties being taken away, our rights to free speech, assembly, the vote being disqualified now with a fraud. Even the right to life based on breathing, life itself is breath. And when you're being forced to mask yourself, you're actually being deprived of your right to life.

These are things that people have to feel and so maybe the New World Order agenda has to, in a sense, roll itself out before people are ready to stand up. And I do believe the Patriot faction is there but it is, in a sense, a co-conscious creation, that as people are waking up and looking for allegiance, those that are the Patriots in government are being enabled and emboldened to actually take the right stand, but they need the people's support. So that's a little bit of where I am at.

Robert David Steele: I thought that was very articulate. Thank you Simon Parkes in the British Empire with good contacts at Fort Huachuca and elsewhere. I actually rely heavily on what you say Simon, every day.

Simon Parkes: Well, before the audience you'll cut me so nicely, but what the audience needs to know, of course, Robert - Robert David Steele referred to all as 'Unruly Rascals' because we like long shows. Your shows are so short and quick. We have to really think, don't we, Robert - right? Here we go. I'm now banned from YouTube until the end of April and I just want to tell people why. I referred to Trump supporters as Patriots. That's actually not allowed now. I was banned for - wait for it - 'supporting violent criminal gangs'. Trump supporters are now labeled as 'violent criminal gangs'. So I've been banned until the end of April for supporting violent criminal gangs and that is very, very interesting.

There's been a lot of debate about, were we right to counsel a bit of caution, a bit of calm. Should we have said, you know, take to the streets and fight. And what I would say to people is, first of all, if you had taken a gun - if you're a patriot - and you'd taken a gun, who would you have fought? You wouldn't have fought the cops. You would have fought the National Guard and the Army.

The only people who would have been pleased with that would have been the Deep State. Because the Deep State wants Trump supporters fighting the Army and then the job is done for them.

So anybody who's calling for the Patriots to go out and fight, you're not thinking it through. If this was North Korea or China, then I probably would have a different opinion. But the United States military dislikes Biden. There are 800 from the rank of Colonel to four-star general who support Trump, don't support Biden.

People need to look in the mainstream media. Mrs. Biden tries to hand cookies out; nobody takes them. Mrs. Biden and Mr. Biden are in the motorcar, the military turned their backs on them. He sits in an office in Castle Rock in California and he signs blank pieces of paper. And he said, "This is an executive order, what am I signing?" This isn't a conspiracy theory. This is actual reality and we know for a fact there are two governments in America. There's the office holder called Biden. And then there's the military.

When Trump signed his executive orders in 2018 and 2019, he actually put in a clause which said that it could not be countermanded by the next incoming president. It's the Joint Chiefs who have been given the authority to decide when the National Emergency ends. So Joe Biden can't sign an executive order canceling Trump's executive order. Only the Joint Chiefs can decide when that happens. Trump is still writing executive orders to the military now, so that's a very important point.

And again, it's in the public domain that there's – well, this isn't: I will just say that there there's a very realistic chance for war now between Israel and Iran and it's not Biden moving soldiers in Syria. The Pentagon's moving soldiers into Syria in an effort to prevent and contain the Middle East War.

China is very worried about the F-35 stealth fighter that's been supplied to Saudi Arabia. Saudi Arabia is just opening its first embassy in Tel Aviv. And China is very concerned that in a war, F-35 fighters from Saudi Arabia could outmatch fighters from Iran. So Biden's team wrote to the Pentagon saying how many fighters have you sent; how many spare parts; how many missiles; how many Sidewinders? What's the replacement rate; what's the deal? And the Pentagon wrote back and said you don't need to know that. The Pentagon has also told Biden he is not welcome physically in the Pentagon.

So we've got two governments and, you know, they don't want Biden. So, we just have to wait and I think the big thing I want to say to people is, we all had a congregation date to look at this amazing date of the 20th. I don't think the public is going to get anything like the warning that we did the first time, that things might be building up. I believe that sometime between March and April, but don't be surprised if in February they make their move.

So my message is a message of hope. You know, the military don't want Biden, they don't recognize him and it's not over at all. So there you go. I've got in and you didn't raise your hand up, Robert, and I've got it within five minutes. Thank you.

Robert David Steele: Ah, you're blessed. I feel so honored to be in the company of all of you.

Now Charlie Ward who always brings a ray of sunshine with him.

Charlie Ward: Let's get back to some facts. The fact is that the United States government corporation was dissolved 18 months ago, two years ago. You don't need any ...to take my word for it you go to Companies House to check it out. It's been declared bankrupt. Now when a corporation or company goes bankrupt, you have a Loss Adjuster come in and mediate the transition and that's happened. The two people that are wanting money from America are China and Saudi Arabia. Now, the United States of America is bankrupt. The only thing of any value in America is the Pension funds, the federal pension funds, which have now been seized by China and Saudi Arabia.

Now if the public knew that, there would be a civil war there. This is why they had to use the virus and the vaccine. But the actual process of having an election to elect a chairman, president, whatever you want to call it, to a company that has been dissolved is completely pointless. It's a charade. This has been done so that Trump could establish who was trying to steal it and how they were trying to do it. The process has no value. The fact that Biden won it by default has no value. The corporation is bankrupt.

So Donald Trump is right that he's stood back, stood out of the way. He hasn't stood down, not at any stage as he surrendered or stood down. He's pulled away to form what I used to refer to as a NESARA government. But I did say I didn't think he'd call it that. I thought he might call it TRUMPSARA, but he didn't. He's called it the Patriots Party and I was talking to my wife earlier, and she's gone, "You can't have just one party." I went why not? All our lives they tried to divide us with Democrat-Republican, Conservative-Labor, Sunni- Shia, Christian-Muslim. It's all bullshit. All we want is one government that represents the people as one people and that's where we're heading. And that's why I think we're in The Best Time Of Our Lives.

Robert David Steele: I think that's fascinating. I personally have undertaken ...I'm going to be interviewing Sheriff Matt and Brad Rogers and we're talking about the sheriffs and the pastors and the local magistrates coming together because I have come to the conclusion that most - but not all - federal, state and local officials are now compromised by bribery, pedophilia blackmail or brainwashing. And so literally, we have to get away from this fiction that electing people to represent us actually has any good value at all.

And now for the piece de resistance, the Savage from Indonesia - Sacha Stone.

Sacha Stone: Well, you should caveat that by saying I've been doing five and a half hours of back-to-back broadcast. Now I've gone almost blind. But look - lovely, in the first instance, to be with my dear friends. I've known Sean for many years, love him as a brother. Simon, love him as a brother. Charlie – a new-found friend who I absolutely adore, can't wait to spend time with you. ...and, and then there's you Robert.

Look, 80/20 is the ratio as far as I'm concerned. This is to me, my take-away from this insane godless pantomime, vaudeville that we've all been forced to endure in the last year, culminating in the great big climax of last week and this bizarre appearance by the sock puppet Biden and his coterie of miscreants surrounded by clenched-jawed military guys, looking through Terminator shades with their hands twitching at the trigger. You know, it was just fantastic to observe this kind of pantomime.

But 80/20 is my take away. I happen to know in the marrow in my bones that 80% of America voted for Trump and not for Biden. I happen to know in my bones that about 80% of human beings, righteous human beings know the entire extant system to be satanic and Luciferic. I happen to know that. I've had a 22-year conversation going with tens of thousands of human beings since 1997-98 when I began this journey with Humanitad.

Orwellian-speak is all around us and it's entirely appropriate. Those of us who, you know, have any kind of finger on the pulse know to expect Helter Skelter. So you read, you take the opposite of what's being said on the screen, the great screen of Maya and you're halfway closer to the truth. Then take what you're then told, flip that on its head, you're halfway closer to the truth. That's actually a mathematical equation to get to the truth in a time of treachery and lies.

I wouldn't take a cookie from Jill Biden. I don't know anyone who would, but that's not really the point. Bifurcation at the civilizational level is the point - at the social level, at the economics level. Why? Because it's happening at the Galactic plane-level. That's the real story. The real story is something out of the Upanishads. The Mahabharata-- This is the great Epochs playing out. The Galactic Climax is actually what we are playing out. We are blessed, blessed emissaries of the Godhead playing out the Galactic pantomime right here, right now.

Now the question is this - we can all wax lyrical about constitutional governments, about corporation governments, military governments. All of that stuff is going to naturally play out anyway. This is the crowning glory, not of where we place our attention into the field of ideation, but how we resurrect ourselves like Lazarus, within a dream spell, within the dead fiction of our lives - a death cult that is pervaded our civilization for thousands and thousands of years. This is our crowning glory, what we just witnessed was the end, a hollow echo at the end of an old, tired routine.

You know, I've used this expression in recent weeks, but we're living through right now with this Biden 'crypto-administration' is the shadowy ghostly figures being entered into imperial legends on the outer fringes of the Empire 30 years after the city has fallen.

The Empire has actually fallen. It's over; it's already dead. But where we place our attention in the inner-scape as Christed Adamites, and then join hands in fellowship, that will determine the degree to which we engage the euphoria of the journey that's ahead of us. All the rest is white noise.

Robert David Steele: Wow, alright, 30 seconds each in the same order - Sean Stone, 30 seconds final word. .

Sean Stone: Yes, as well as Sacha was talking about the Greater Consciousness and I touched upon this - it's a co-creative journey, right? This is an exploration of Consciousness, Human Consciousness. This is why, as you know Robert, I've never said that Q was a bad thing. It's like, I don't know if the Q is real or misinformation or partly disinformation. But I appreciate the fact that it's about dropping questions and letting people start to think, and to start to think outside of their normal box.

You know, I've been doing this work on Buzzsaw going back to 2013 with interviews with lot of these people that these stories are playing out now in the present day. If people watch those interviews, and they're going Wow. We're talking about the vaccines and the Chemtrails, the New World Order and the war on free thought and censorship and everything - It's like, it's not prophecy. It's just when you look at reality and you're willing to LOOK at reality, you see that it's not what you think it is. It's not what mainstream media has told you it is. It's not what your teachers taught you in school.

And this is where people like us are taking the leadership position. I think we just have to be very careful not to spread misinformation in these times. We have to be very discerning and say, you know these, you know, maybe this is what I'm told but this is in my gut, you know, I'm not going to give you guys a, say, you know, a set date and say, you know by this date you'll be free. We can't, we can't do that.

We have to be very discerning and using our intuition and gnosis in how these things work and play out to say this is a co-creative journey that we're on together. I can give you certain information. I can point your eyes to start to see that the wizard has no power, that Wizard of Oz that's behind the curtain. And this Biden administration is pure Wizard of Oz. The megaphone is Media. They're telling you believe this, you know, listen to the little old man, that scrawny senile old man. It's all puppetry at this point. There's no energy behind it.

So this is where I feel people have to pay attention to. There's no energy behind the Biden administration. The American people are not behind the Biden administration. We have to keep our energy and focus on what we want to create, which is as discussed. Go back to the Republic, go back to the principles of this country, our Constitution. Go back to these rights given to us by our founding fathers, not hijacked by some swamp in Washington foreign entity, a foreign corporation, basically, that it's imposed its will. So this is where we have to focus.

Robert David Steele: Well, before I turn to Simon - let me say, I strongly support Simon's nonviolent legal ethical call to moderation and avoiding conflict. I think things are playing out in a very important way. Simon Parkes, a final word from you.

Simon Parkes: Thank you Robert. I thought for a minute that Sacha was going to read us from the Indian Vedas. That's where we were really, but it's absolutely right that Sacha has done that because this is a time of choice and I say to people, you know, you choose a cup of coffee or a cup of tea and you make a choice. But what we have in front of us is the choice for Humanity. Who will see the lies and who will see the truth and we are so gifted to be here at this time. I could have been here a hundred years ago, maybe I was. I could be here a hundred years, but I'm here now and all of us that are here now and are observing this have been given that wonderful gift of choice. And I think that this is part of the transference of humanity to the next level. Now, I'm not going to start talking new age, but I am going to say that it is natural for a planet and the people on this planet to evolve.

Whether you want to look on that as an intellectual evolution, that's fine. For me, it's a spiritual evolution. That's why set up Connecting Consciousness, because I knew in my lifetime this planet and the people who chose to evolve were going to evolve, and this is perhaps – hopefully, fingers crossed - the last big choice that the planet consciousness choice of humanity that we have to make.

And if we can get this right, and I think we will, then I think that nothing can stop humanity and its development, that we've only got good times to look forward to.

So I just have a message of Hope. Thank you.

Robert David Steele: Jon Peterson agrees with you. And he's the founder of the Arlington Institute, a noted futurist and he says we are on an upward trajectory, no matter what happens.

Charlie Ward, hit us hard in the face.

Charlie Ward: Well, I started this journey about seven years ago when I was told that this was going to happen, and I was told two to three years ago is going to happen soon. And then in November 2019 they said, right we're going to do it next year.

What I'm referring to is the shutting down the world's economy for Global Financial Reset. They told me this seven years ago. They told me two to three years ago, and they told me in November 2019. That's all I knew at that stage. I was unaware that there were two resets in play, the New World Order's reset and Donald Trump's team reset. I've learned that along the way.

I sometimes have to poke myself to remind myself of exactly what we're going through right now, but the destination is that we're going to move from darkness into light into a new financial system of fairness.

What we're going through at the moment is a very, very dirty tunnel to get there. And we're seeing a lot of darkness. We're moving from darkness into light. We need to learn to focus on the light at the end of the tunnel rather than focusing on the shit on the walls of the tunnel. Keep your focus Straight Ahead. We'll try and guide you the best that we can, and we'll try and lead you to all the information that we can possibly find. And what I want you to do is look for yourself and make your own judgment.

Robert David Steele: God bless you Charlie. Let me introduce Sacha Stone by saying that I actually have lived in his residence. I have known him for years and as raggedy-ass and spiritually weird he might sound, I think Sacha Stone is the real deal and he is one of my touchstones, as are all of you. I am honored to be in your presence. Sacha Stone, close us out.

Sacha Stone: Thank you Robert for the kindness. Again, lovely to be with my brothers here. You know, for me the 25 years of constant spiritual inquiry and intellectual pursuit of that vagary called Truth has led me to understand that the path of least resistance to the highest outcome in life is Pure Truth and Right Action - those two simple vectors in the living present, in the now.

If one engages in Pure Truth and Right Action in the living now - and living now by definition means that one is Dynamic Consciousness in action, not just being conscious. An apricot has conscious, an avocado has consciousness. I'm talking about Consciousness In Action, plasma projection. So when we project our plasma and we set it onto noble ideals, and then move toward the enactment, the embodiment of the manifestation of that noble expression, that is what we're purposed to do. And that is what we are purposed to be.

But in order to do that, we need to first remove any identification with the fiction of our lives. Government is a god-damned godless fiction. Money, usury, debt, enslavement, servitude. All of that is just the issue of government. Government is the issue of the Catholic Church, of monotheistic religious programming.

We need to now simply remove adherence to false light, all of those icons and wrong dreams and start to dream wisely as self-realized, as self-determining sons and daughters of God Almighty.

Robert David Steele: I will end by saying that I believe that the move toward localization – You, Sacha, have been taking some very good conversations with indigenous leaders, hereditary leaders. - And what I am seeing is a rising up of the local and people who know each other and trust each other and are able to make decisions.

So let me say thank you to all of you for doing what no one thought could be done - speak briefly together today. God bless you all.
